

KREMLIN AWARD

KREMLIN AWARD GRAND PREMIUM

The decision was made to develop a drink for all diplomatic receptions and banquets in the Kremlin that would become the hallmark of high-level events. It was unanimously agreed that the official drink would be vodka, the most traditional Russian beverage.

Created in 1901 recipe remained a state secret, further elevating the status of this exclusive spirit. This vodka was only produced on a special order of the Kremlin and in limited quantities.

We have decided to call it KREMLIN AWARD Grand Premium, preserving therein the legend of the vodka's unique origins.

KREMLIN AWARD stays true to tradition and history, combining them with an innovative production process to create a spirit of unparalleled quality.
